

127, Clifton Road,
May 20, 1946.

Dear Miss Parlow:

There was nothing last night really to say how deeply my wife and I appreciated the superb concert given by your quartet. The founding of this quartet has been the major musical event of recent years in this city, and those who were present last night can only be a few of the large number to whom you have given, over the radio and elsewhere, so much undiluted pleasure.

Yours sincerely,

H. Northrop Frye.

Miss Kathleen Parlow,
30, Prince Arthur Ave.,
Toronto.

